

Kleer certifies that

Damián Buonamico

Successfully passed the

Scrum Developer Engineering Practices Assessment

on December 19, 2011.

This assessment is approved by Scrum Alliance Inc., therefore valid as a requirement for the Certified Scrum Developer credential.

Note: This certifies that the person successfully passed the Scrum Developer Engineering Practices Assessment at a SA-REP organization, but doesn't grant the person a CSD credential yet, for which the candidate has to apply at Scrum Alliance, Inc.
